READINGS FOR January 24, 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading: Jonah 3.1-5,10

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 25

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7.29-31

Gospel: Mark 1.14-20

The Gospel is from St. John 1:35-42 and gives an account of the vocation of the first four Apostles who followed Jesus. It was a momentous event in the history of salvation. It was the beginning of a stream of vocations that would grow and spread down through the ages until the end of the world. It was momentous, firstly, in that Christ, who had come to open heaven for all men and who could find means of bringing them all to that eternal home without help from any man, decided instead to let men co-operate with him in this divine task. He decreed to set up a kingdom in this world—his Church—which would be run by mere mortals for their fellow-mortals, but which would be under his protection and assisted by his divine aid until the end of time. Christ chose this very human way, in order to make his Church more acceptable to our limited, human understanding and more approachable for sinful, human nature.

The more I follow him without fear, the more he will protect me. The more I do his will, the more he will prove his love for me. St. Marguerite Bourgeoys

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

DAILY AND WEEKEND MASSES ARE CANCELLED FROM DEC. 26 - JAN. 23
RESUMPTION OF MASSES WILL DEPEND ON FUTURE PROVINCIAL REGULATIONS
REGARDING COVID 19.

My Offering

Church Offering Envelopes will be mailed out in the coming week. If you do not receive them please call.

My precious Lord Jesus, give me insight and wisdom so that I may know You and believe in You. Help me, each and every day, to discover more fully the great and awe-inspiring mystery of who You are.

I love You, my Lord, and I pray that I may come to know and love You all the more.

Jesus, I trust in You.
